NISO CELEBRATES 75 YEARS

The National Information Standards Organization turns 75 this year and its publication Information Standards Quarterly (ISQ) has just passed its 25th birthday. In the 2009 issues of ISQ when the organization turned 70, we shared with you some of NISO's milestones beginning with its inception as Committee Z39 of the American Standards Association (ASA) in 1939. In this issue we update that timeline with new milestones from the past five years.
